

JAMES

The Priorities of a
Scattered Church

James 2:1-13
Avoid Favoritism

Favoritism is a sin against
Christ (vs. 1),

James 2:1-13
Avoid Favoritism

Favoritism is a sin against
Christ (vs. 1), the church (vs. 2-4),

James 2:1-13
Avoid Favoritism

A black and white line drawing of dandelions. On the left, three dandelion heads are shown on their stems, with the tallest one reaching towards the top left. Scattered across the upper right portion of the image are several dandelion seeds, each with its characteristic feathery pappus and a small stem, appearing to be blowing away from the main cluster on the left.

Favoritism is a sin against
Christ (vs. 1), the church (vs. 2-4),
God (vs. 5),

James 2:1-13
Avoid Favoritism

A black and white line drawing of dandelions. On the left, three dandelion heads are shown on their stems, with the top one being the largest. Scattered across the upper right portion of the image are several dandelion seeds, each with its characteristic feathery pappus and a small seed head, as if blowing in the wind.

Favoritism is a sin against
Christ (vs. 1), the church (vs. 2-4),
God (vs. 5), neighbors (vs. 6-7),

James 2:1-13
Avoid Favoritism

A black and white line drawing of dandelions. On the left, three dandelion heads are shown on their stems, increasing in size from bottom to top. Scattered across the upper right portion of the image are several dandelion heads that have been blown away from their stems, floating in the air. The drawing is minimalist, using only outlines and fine lines to represent the seeds and stems.

Favoritism is a sin against
Christ (vs. 1), the church (vs. 2-4),
God (vs. 5), neighbors (vs. 6-7), love (vs. 8),

James 2:1-13
Avoid Favoritism

A black and white line drawing of dandelions. On the left, three dandelions are shown in various stages of growth, with their heads and stems clearly defined. On the right, several dandelion heads are shown in flight, with their seeds blowing away, creating a sense of movement and dispersal.

Favoritism is a sin against
Christ (vs. 1), the church (vs. 2-4),
God (vs. 5), neighbors (vs. 6-7), love (vs. 8),
the law (vs. 9-11),

James 2:1-13

Avoid Favoritism

A black and white line drawing of dandelions. On the left, a large dandelion seed head is shown in profile, with its stem curving upwards. Below it, two smaller dandelion heads are also shown. The background is filled with numerous dandelion seeds, each with its characteristic feathery pappus, scattered across the upper half of the image as if blowing in the wind.

Favoritism is a sin against
Christ (vs. 1), the church (vs. 2-4),
God (vs. 5), neighbors (vs. 6-7), love (vs. 8),
the law (vs. 9-11), and mercy (vs. 12-13).

James 2:1-13

Avoid Favoritism